IMPORTANT NOTICE

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, the City of Lexington reviewed our waste collection services. During this review, we learned there were ways we could streamline our services to benefit residents beyond the pandemic. The new schedule will balance the workload of our crews to improve the reliability and consistency of our service to you. Beginning Tuesday, April 13, 2021 you may have a new recycling collection schedule. We have included an updated version of your 2021 collection schedule with more information to follow letting you know if your scheduled recycling collection week is changing.

Should you have any questions about the change please visit our website at www.LexingtonNC.gov or by calling our Recycling and Waste Collection Department at (336) 248-3965.
